7.2 Zero Tolerance Policy

Freeland Pre-school has a zero-tolerance policy towards all violence and aggression. This policy is for the protection of staff, volunteers, parents/carers, and visitors.

Freeland Pre-school aims to provide high quality childcare and will treat all families using the pre-school with respect. In return, we expect our staff and volunteers to be treated in the same way. We will not tolerate abusive language, rude language or threatening behaviour against any staff member or volunteer.

Freeland Pre-school reserves the right, in line with safeguarding procedures, to ban anyone behaving aggressively from the pre-school premises until further notice.

We believe that we have a strong partnership with our parents and maintain an open-door policy to discuss any matters arising.
